Electronic mega-phones from Federal Signal let you take control of hectic situations.

The model A12SA is the most powerful, light-weight (less than four pounds each) electronic unit available. The special noise canceling microphone improves voice reproduction even at long distances. Rugged, high-impact parts are virtually indestructible, providing long service life. Federal Signal loud speakers are ideal for law enforcement, fire, marine, athletics, industry, and a variety of other markets.

Model A12SA

Voice Gun model A12SA electronic megaphone is suitable for use at any emergency scene. It is made of high-impact, flame-retardant plastic and operates on (8) "AA" size batteries. This added benefit makes it useful for hazardous applications where fire is a threat.
