

IPX310 models of Impaxx® LED warning lights to be discontinued

In our continuing effort to stream-line Federal Signal's product offering and improve efficiencies, the IPX310 series of Impaxx® models will be discontinued. The IPX310 models incorporate clear lenses with a "center-focused" prescription. Additionally, the model IPX302-6 is being discontinued as well.

The more popular IPX300 and IPX302 versions of Impaxx remain available.
