

Single Function Evacuator® Back-up Alarms to be Discontinued

In our continuing efforts to stream-line our product offering, Federal Signal is discontinuing single function Evacuator® back-up alarm models.

TIMING

Effective immediately, new orders for the discontinued single function Evacuator back-up alarm models will not be accepted.

RECOMMENDED ALTERNATIVES

Suggested alternatives for the single function Evacuator back-up alarms are the dual function Evacuator back-up alarms and the 2012 Series back-up alarms.
